Reservation for women in elections to Cantonment Boards

2979. SHRI NANDI YELLAIAH: Will the Minister of DEFENCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government would conduct elections to Cantonment Boards in India;

(b) if so, when;

(c) if not, the reasons therefor;

(d) whether Government would provide women reservations in all Cantonment Boards before conducting the elections to all Cantonment Boards in India;

(e) whether Government would nominate peoples' representative to all Cantonment Boards in India, pending elections;

(f) whether Government would increase the number of ward members under every Cantonment Board, based on the latest census figures;

(g) if so, the details thereof; and

(h) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF DEFENCE (SHRI PRANAB MUKHERJEE): (a) to (c) Yes, Sir. A comprehensive Bill, Cantonment Bill, 2003, has been introduced in Parliament and is presently with Standing Committee on Defence. Elections as per law will be conducted when the Bill is passed.

(d) Provisions for the reservation for women have been made in the Cantonments Bill, 2003, presently being examined by the Standing Committee on Defence and accordingly seats for women will be reserved while holding elections to Cantonment Boards as per provisions of law.

(e) Yes, Sir.

(f) to (h) There is no provision either under the existing Cantonment Act, 1924, or in the new Cantonments Bill, 2003, to increase the members of every Cantonment Board based on the last census figures.
